Fine Garden Ornament, Fountains & Planters

Welcome to our latest catalogue of fine garden ornament, planters and fountains. Our aim is to provide clients with the highest quality garden ornament available and to achieve this we are proud to employ the talents of master craftsmen, utilising traditional techniques in the disciplines of stone and marble masonry, bronze, copper and lead work, alongside our own unique range of age-patinated artificial stone, manufactured here at Taddington high up on the Cotswold Hills.

Now well into its second generation, Architectural Heritage continues to grow, proudly producing the garden antiques of the future and providing clients worldwide with the fine service and expert knowledge that has been our hallmark for over 40 years.

Our full range of fine garden ornament, alongside our antique garden statuary inventory, is permanently displayed here in the grounds and galleries of Taddington Manor and is also available to view on our regularly updated website www.architectural-heritage.co.uk.

For more information on any item please do feel free to call on 013 6 5 4414 or alternatively email alex@architectural-heritage.co.uk.

I very much look forward to being of assistance.

Kind Regards

Alex

Product Information

Age Patinated Artificial Stone

Continuing a tradition begun in the early 19th Century by Austin and Seeley, Architectural Heritage's artificial stone ornament, hand-made here at our Taddington manufactory, imitates the patina of aged stone.

This unique look is achieved by hand finishing and age patinating to our own formula, in a four stage process, which when completed effects the look akin to old weathered garden ornament. Architectural Heritage's age patinated artificial stone ornament is well suited for water features due to its strength and resilience in extreme temperatures.

Hand Carved Natural Limestone

Architectural Heritage's hand carved natural limestone garden ornament takes its inspiration from the rare 1st and 19th Century antique originals in which we have dealt for the past 40 years. Above are three stages of natural weathering acquired within two years.

Period Garden Statuary

Architectural Heritage always seeks to source the finest examples of 17th, 18th and early 20th century garden statuary, ornament and water features available, with a strong emphasis on aesthetic value, provenance and historical interest.

Fine Reproduction Garden Ornament

Taking inspiration from the antique, in which we have dealt for over 40 years, Architectural Heritage presents fine reproduction garden ornament, fountains and statuary based on period designs, made by craftsmen using traditional techniques.

Modern Sculpture

As a natural progression from dealing in period sculpture, Architectural Heritage is now pleased to present to clients interesting and exciting works of modern and contemporary sculpture from well-known and emerging artists alike.

Period Architectural Elements

With over 40 years experience, we are in a unique position to source, conserve and present fine examples of our architectural heritage, displaying panelled rooms, staircases and period fire surrounds in the 17th century barns at Taddington Manor.

Bespoke Stone Fire Surrounds

Architectural Heritage undertakes commissions to carve bespoke fire surrounds in natural limestone to clients' requirements, utilising traditional stone masonry techniques and craftsmanship to achieve the highest standards of work.
